To Whom it May Concern

In 1966 I was admitted to the Bar of Japanese Lawyer's. During the same year I opened Sadao Tsutsui Law Office at the above address.

I became acquainted with Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh through his book "Tantra - The Supreme Understanding" in 1979. Since I have read 16 more of his books that have been translated into Japanese and also I practise his meditation techniques every morning for one hour.

Article 1 of the regulation's describing a Japanese lawyer's conduct states that a lawyer's mission is to protect the fundamental human rights and to actualize social justice. This is the basic foundation of a lawyer's activity here in Japan. To perform one's duty within the law, a deep insight and understanding of society and human being's and freedom and independence of a lawyer as oneself is needed.

For me to achieve these things, the influence and teachings of an outstanding enlightened person is of great value. I strongly feel that Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh is such kind of person.
