

To whom it may concern

I write to you concerning the spiritual leader Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

First, some words about my own background.

I am a Ph. D. of psychology (University of Copenhagen), clinical psychologist and during the past 10 years I have been involved in consciousness-research and practical application of humanistic psychology in Denmark. I have also been translating and editing several books on psychotherapy, consciousness research and religion.

After finishing my Ph. D. I met a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, who introduced me to his writings. These writings seemed to express extraordinary wisdom and insight and evidenced a close acquaintance with all the major religious traditions of the world and also with modern western psychology, psychotherapy and consciousness research.

Inspired by this, I went to India and was initiated as a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. Having watched the growth of his work during the past 10 years, it is my opinion, that he is a religious teacher and spiritual leader of extraordinary dimensions, who not only in his teaching has been able to incorporate the best of the Eastern and Western spiritual traditions, but also has been able to attract thousands of disciples from all over the world and through his work has had a deep transformational impact on a number of people unequalled by any other religious teacher in the world to day.

EXHIBIT "A-534"

I am convinced, that the state of Oregon and the U. S. A. in giving him the opportunity to continue his work, in the eyes of a large part of humanity will come to stand out as a shining example of that generosity and openness, which is the hallmark of the great American tradition of religious freedom.

Yours sincerely
