To Whom it may Concern;

I am a known film producer who has produced many short films which have received much critical acclaim, including the prestigious "Bronze Lion" at the Canne Film Festival in France. And my work and myself have been written about in numerous publications.

I know of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh through his tapes, through his books and through friends.

Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh is an exceptional artist of words, a great actor, and an exceptional religious leader. A man of such gifts is a rare jewel.

Sincerely,

Samuel Schapiro
