

Mr Narutaka Moriyama

July 13th, 1983

To Whom it May Concern,

I am working as the postmaster of special mail in the city of Yao in Osaka Japan.

The purpose of my work is to improve the communication system of my country, but more than that, to become a bridge between the administration of the country and the people of the local society. So, our office has melt into the local society and has become knownen and loved by the people.

I met Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh five years ago. I am fond of reading, and it was through His books that I came to know Him. While reading His books I felt a deep love for Bhagwan, something that I had never felt before. Since then I have been proud to be His disciple while maintaining my professional duties. Naturally it is beyond my expression to say how precious His loving presents have been to my life, but just looking at my field of work, they are so beautiful.

Since I became committed so deeply to Bhagwan, my Post Office has become alive and bright beyond recognition. The staff do not lose their smiles and are offering a beautiful service.

Because of this, my office has now gained a little reputation from the people. It is the most popular office in our area.

Thus I feel really happy sharing our love with the people and have successfully created a bridge between the administration of the country and the people of the local society.

Bhagwan makes us aware of love and bliss through the normal way of living, not through becoming someone special.

I would like other people to know this beautiful Bhagwan more and more.
