To Whom it may Concern,

I would like to express a concern I have about our country as regards its artistic and spiritual future. I am a retired art teacher with an M.F.A. degree who at last has the time to think, write and paint.

More immediate than general concerns, however, is my interest in my son's well being. He has been under Bhagwan's influence for about five years now, in San Francisco, in Poona, in New York and now in Oregon. I am grateful my son has finally Found happiness and serenity.

I regard Rajneeshpuram as a haven for him. I believe such a place is the salvation that many of the kids who grew up in the Turbulent sixties can turn to,
and for this reason I think Bhagwan should be allowed to stay in the U.S.A.
