To Whom This May Concern

My name is Matla Sarkin and I live in Johannesburg - South Africa.
I am the mother of Cedric who has been named Vetrug by Bhagwan and has been thus called for so long as he - and his wife Pritha - have been disciple or followers of Bhagwan. And that has been for approximately 10 years.

At that time Vetrug was 25 years or and was at the crossroads of his life.
He heard about Bhagwan while he was in Les and soon after my son went to India. He felt that Bhagwan was a very special person and was able to satisfy his spiritual needs and represented to end to a search for a way of.

I went to see him in Poona in 1979 and was very gratified to find a wonderful change in my son. Through Bhagwan Vetrug had found peace, security, love of his fellow man, encouragement, confidence, discipline, guidance and direction. All the moral and ethical values were witnessed by a mother who found these qualities in her:

daughter-in-law and grand daughter Kiran, now 8 years old

These blessed attributes must be multiplied thousands of times according to the followers of this mentor, teacher, guide and master.

Although he is now in silence Bhagwan can only be a great asset in the U.S.A as seen by the vast improvements already achieved on the Ranch in Oregon after only 2 years.

May Bhagwan be spared many years to continue serving those who follow him in his new and already blessed world.

I am

Yours faithfully
(Mrs) Matla Sark
