REGARDING: Shri Bhagwan Rajneesh

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The value to America of such a man as Rajneesh should not be negated by the small talk and hearsay that has created a non-objective view of this good man.

In the future, he will be regarded as a pioneer of the new age. The contribution of his many books and tapes which are distributed by spiritual bookstores and sold to the seeking intelligentsia, are one side of his value. Another is the grand experiment in Oregon where creative individuals are building a community devoted to the common good, and which is producing the know how to have barren land turned into an oasis where human life is a contribution to nature, and many questions about ecology can be solved for the rest of us.

Myself and many others do not want this being, equal in spirit to a Ghandi, lost to our wonderful country.

Sincerely,

Jules Buccieri
