To whom it may concern:

Since about three years I'm a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. I met him by reading several of his books, finding them unusual intense, full of a rare wisdom and love. Now being in his influence for so long I found me changed in ~~an~~ many ways. My attitude toward life has grown so much positive - this includes a happiness and freedom I find in myself - an openness towards people I live with or work with. I used to work as a clerk in an office and without my colleagues being connected with Bhagwan they found me growing more and more easy and shining.

The way Bhagwan's influence works is hard to tell for me because it happens without words at all. On this year's and last year's festival there was so much peace and joy - thousands of people and all relaxed and very clear and happy - just imagine Satsang with him - a silent hour of relaxing into oneself, connecting with a very peaceful space of happiness.

Being on a short visit on the Ranch I see his disciples create beautiful live-able space out of a desert. The atmosphere is relaxed and very easy and encouraging work on farming and construction is being done. Creativity is flourishing.

This all wouldn't ever happen if Shegwan wasn't the unique person he is. He made me feel the uniqueness and beauty in every human being. His mere presence makes more and more people grow to a more easy and beautiful life.

My absolute belief is that any country on this planet is blessed with this man living in it.
