To whom it may concern, after my studies at the University of Fribourg, Switzerland with a degree in language and education (1976), I have been working in several state-supported projects.

To be with Bhagwan has been the most extraordinary and inspiring experience in my life.

His words, which are collected in over 300 books, are dealing with all the aspects of the human consciousness and they are of immense help to anybody working with other people.

I've been working with Bhagwan's meditation techniques in my projects with young people and the effects of the Dynamic Meditation were remarkable. The release of suppressed emotions created space for creativity and lightness. Suddenly it was so easy to work with those adolescents. Some of my colleagues in those projects still continue to use those techniques, even so they are not disciples of Bhagwan. In fact, to use those techniques is easier than any other method, because they have a certain playfulness and all you need is a tape recorder and a room. Even my Karateteacher was using Bhagwan's meditations.

The city of Rajneeshpuram is the expression of his love:
So many different people living and working in harmony.
To me and to many others Bhagwan's presence is felt as a great gift.

Any country could be proud of being the host of such an exceptional guest and his commune. It's a place where the trees and the grass and the love grows.

Yours sincerely
