TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I'm writing this letter today to let you know my experience: being in the presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

Here, people work just like everywhere else, but something is different. They are efficient, professional, but the spirit is different. Competition is dropped: we're work together. We're sharing the same vision, the great vision of the new man, inspired by Bhagwan.

I won't just write about it...Bhagwan's books are available for that! I just want to tell you that this man's vision has changed the quality of our lives.

The work is different, here, because of his presence. Being with him, in communion with him, we absorb his powerful energy, we share his love, we express it through our work. Our work becomes worship, and our worship transforms this place into a paradise.

His presence here, his silence, is the very essence of our lives. This man's compassion and genius inspires us to transform this world into the most beautiful and loving place to live in.

His religious insight, so deep, so rich, encourages us to live to our optimum. His very silence reveals to us our potential--inside, a richness. Sitting in his presence, in silence, during the festivals that happen here this past year, I've experienced infinite love. My life is blessed by his presence.

The presence of this man is a real treasure.

Very sincerely,

Swami Anand Raghuvira
