To Whom It May Concern,

I have come to know Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh during my studies at a teachers training college a few years ago. I was mainly inspired by his books which seemed to express thoughts and feelings I have had for several years.

Reading his words made me realize a lot clearer what it means to be with children, to teach them and to respect them at the same time. Through Bhagwan I learnt to become a lot clearer within myself which helped me to stay much better with my job and to feel more and more fulfilled with my life.

Now I have come to Rajneeshpuram for the second time as a visitor. Have I thought that Bhagwan's talking is important for me, I realized - since my last visit to Rajneeshpuram - that only his presence is enough to remind me of my own buddhahood He has been talking about for so many years. There is no need to say anything more ~ He has done it in more than 300 Books anyway ~ just watching Him and being with Him during Satsangs, Darshans and on his daily rides is such a beautiful gift.

Once again I am amazed by the progress this commune has made within the last twelve months. It is not only because of many new buildings which have gone up lately that I want to talk about progress - it is more the strong unity among the people living here, building this place, working long hours and still being able to smile at the person sitting next to you in the bus. They all show so much warmth and love, and only because they all share our Master Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh who is here among us overflowing with love. Without his inspiration this place certainly wouldn't be what it is now, it is only because of this that we are here trying to live together in harmony with ourselves, with each other and with nature. Even for me as a visitor I am included in this Buddhafield and by the time I leave I have got a lot of love to take home and spread around other people.
