To Whom It May Concern,

Having seen a participant in The Second Annual World Celebration held at Rajweshpuram, I must say that the peace, [?] and freedom that the presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajwesh brings to me are beyond words. Bathed by his loving energy, I have the chance to go deep into myself and have a taste of reality, that hidden feeling of unity, of being at home all the Masters have been talking about down the ages.

The presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajwesh has a clearing effect: the worries in my mind are seen from a distance and I feel unburdened, filled with a deep trust and silence. Thus, my understanding of whatever the process I am going through gets much wider and my energy does not get lost in pettiness.

And then I see that it was that pettiness what was keeping me feeling separated for the people around me.

Seeing myself, I can see the other, and love happens.

I feel a deep joy and gratefulness for the precious gift of long, deep in Bhagwa Shree Ramesh's presence
