TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

To me, encountering Bhaawan through his books, and then personally by becoming one of his disciples, has been and still is the most beautiful, deep and intelligent experience of my life.

From Bhaawan I have learned love, acceptance and understanding, to live life with joy, to love my work, to be responsible for my own actions, and to live in the present.

No other school has ever taught me this: I could learn it through Bhaawan Shree Rajneesh's presence.

Yours sincerely,

Ma Preraddhu
