

To whom it may concern, I have been involved in the arts i.e. painting, dance for the last 6 years. I have studied Fine Art at Central School of Arts in London, and also dance at Contemporary School of Dance. At the moment I am completing a course in graphic design.

When I came across Bhegwan I was at a crisis in my attitudes, or perception of painting. Having painted for a year - I had completely lost a sense of direction, I was not in touch with my creativity.

Through him, an understanding of what creativity is happened, and without this understanding I am able to be disciplined as well as creative. A kind of balance betwe order and chaos which comes with meditation.

And this continually happening here - His work seems to become stronger, and stronger.

To me, he is an extraordinary person - the ONLY person in my life who gave me an understanding to allow my creativity in the arts to grow, and continue growing

Yours faithfully
