To whom it may concern

I am an Englishman, 55 years old, a Doctor of Medicine and Consultant Pathologist to the above general hospital.

I see too many of our hospital beds filled with unhappy folk suffering from stress diseases due to anxiety and aggression. Our society is riddled with such diseases and the nations of the world are filled with fear of nuclear war.

I am not a Sannyasin but, to me, Bhagwan is trying to teach individuals how to step aside from their anxieties and fill their lives with love and laughter. He is trying to teach the nations of the world to live together in peace and harmony.

Bhagwan may be unconventional and he cannot "please all the people all of the time", but his fundamental message is simply one of Love.

When, I wonder, will Mankind throw open its arms in welcome to any voice that asks us to love one another? Which Nation shall lead the way?
