To whom it may concern,

I am living in Germany and I am owner of a construction company there. Six years of work experience are past already. At the last summer festival I was a participant and I felt his presence and silence so deeply in myself, I became so quiet inside. During the last 2 years, the time I am with Bhagwan my work in Germany really changed through his influence, his being here. I am much more relaxed, the work goes more easy and more effective. Through Bhagwan's silence and meditation I got more peaceful, loving and happy. This influences people and friends I am working with. The whole energy of work changes through him and his silence and he is present all the time.

My best wishes to all of you
