To Whom it May concern

I have been a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh for 10 months, thus never had the opportunity to be present during his period of lectures and discourses.

From my personal experience listening to tapes of him speaking and then actually coming to Oregon and spending time during the July festival just sitting with him and being in his presence, made it very clear to me that the words are nothing, through the silence more is communicated. The relationship between Master and disciple is one of the heart and through love, and I feel Bhagwan has a lot to offer America through his love, beauty and positivity.

Yours sincerely
