To Whom it may concern,
I became a sannyasin in February 1982, when Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh had already been in silence for almost a year, and I found this no barrier to what this beautiful Master could impart to me. I couldn't have taken sannyas had this been the case.

It seems that there is an idea that teaching can only be done with the spoken or written word. This idea concludes that the heart cannot teach — the heart which is silent, but which is the most powerful and clear communicative force. My heart connection with Bhagwan is the most beautiful thing in my life, and in turn, his heart with me. The teaching that is conveyed to me in such an atmosphere is enormous and continues to grow.

Bhagwan is my teacher, my master.

Blessings to you,
