

To Whom It May Concern,

More than anything I want to love myself & I'm on the way. Slowly, slowly. I'm a sannyasin for the very benefit of Bhagwan's constant guidance & love. To learn the remembrance of myself. I'm thankful for his life force, the opportunity to look into his eyes & gaze upon the loving form. I could ask no more than the knowing that his physical presence is available to sit with in satsang & radiate around the universe. I need the silence to take me inwards, I need to learn to look & feel my heart & know the life everywhere that is called GOD. Through the books, tapes, meditation techniques & especially the presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, us simple little people are creating the possibility of a very loving opportunity for all who ~~to~~ wish it. I'm wanting to feel my loving heart anyway & I want the presence of Bhagwan available. I love Him.

Lovingly
