To Whom it May Concern,

I came to know about Bhagwan four years ago, when I bought one of His books by chance in a bookshop. I found while reading that He was the man that I had been looking for, for so long.

After that I read some more of His books and took part in some groups and meditation camps here in Japan. Finally I made up my mind to take sannyas and in March 1981, I went to Poona in India. It was just before Bhagwan went into silence and on May the second 1981, I took sannyas after doing some more groups and meditation.

Now Bhagwan is in silence. He used to say that real communication is only possible through silence. When I went to the U.S.A last year to see Bhagwan, I felt that His silence presence gives us as much loving guidance as He did while He spoke.

To whom it may concern, please understand His present activities in the U.S.A. and grant His request for permanent residences in the U.S.A.

Miss Yuko Takagi.
